SHATTERED

Inside Hillary Clinton's Doomed Campaign

by JONATHAN ALLEN and AMIE PARNES

Addressing Hillary Clinton's loss in the 2016 election, political writers Jonathan Allen and Amie Parnes have reconstructed the key decisions and unseized opportunities, the well-intentioned misfires and the hidden thorns that turned a winnable contest into a devastating loss. Moving blow by blow from the campaign's difficult birth through the bewildering terror of election night, Shattered will change the way readers understand just what happened to America on November 8, 2016.

"Allen and Parnes offer a first bridge beyond the journalism of the campaign year to the scholarship of the historians and other scholars who will process all this material for generations to come." —NPR

FANTASYLAND

How America Went Haywire: A 500-Year History

by KURT ANDERSEN

In this sweeping, eloquent history of America, Kurt Andersen shows that what's happening in our country today—this post-factual, "fake news" moment we're all living through—is not something new, but rather the ultimate expression of our national character.

"The single most important explanation, and the fullest explanation, of how Donald Trump became president of the United States . . . nothing less than the most important book that I have read this year." —Lawrence O'Donnell

THE TRUTH MATTERS

A Citizen's Guide to Separating Facts from Lies and

Stopping Fake News in Its Tracks

by BRUCE BARTLETT

As recent national events have proven, the floodgates have opened and the political terrain is shifting rapidly with the dangerous concept of "alternative facts" supplanting actual facts at the highest levels of our government and in new media sources that are intentionally designed to spread obfuscation and lies. This brief, accessible citizen's guide helps readers to fight this deeply troubling trend and ensure that truth is not a permanent casualty.

"What is truth? That ancient question looms large in our era, full of accusations of fake news. Bruce Bartlett's clear and concise guide reveals how to distinguish reliable journalism from reports riddled with errors, lies, and nonsense. Best of all, Bartlett's manual is so accessible and direct that anyone will benefit from reading it, from high school students to casual news consumers to professional journalists." —David Cay Johnston, Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist

RISE AND KILL FIRST

The Secret History of Israel's Targeted Assassinations

by RONEN BERGMAN

The Talmud says: "If someone comes to kill you, rise up and kill him first." This instinct to take every measure, even the most aggressive, to defend the Jewish people is hardwired into Israel's DNA. In this page-turning, eye-opening book, journalist and military analyst Ronen Bergman offers a riveting inside account of the targeted killing programs—their successes, their failures, and the moral and political price exacted on the men and women who approved and carried out the missions.

"Impeccably sourced and astoundingly well reported, this page-turning book is indispensable for understanding Israel's fight for survival, with a revelation on every page." —Robert Baer, author of See No Evil

FIVE DOLLARS AND A PORK CHOP SANDWICH

Vote Buying and the Corruption of Democracy

by MARY FRANCES BERRY

In this timely and nonpartisan book, Dr. Mary Frances Berry examines voter manipulation and electoral corruption—and the importance of stimulating voter turnout and participation.

"Mary Frances Berry uncovers a type of voter suppression that many readers will be shocked and outraged to learn exists in twenty-first-century America. Five Dollars and a Pork Chop Sandwich is an urgent, timely, and nonpartisan book that is vital to our democracy." —Anthony D. Romero, executive director of the American Civil Liberties Union

ANTIFA

The Anti-Fascist Handbook

by MARK BRAY

Born soon after fascism was invented in the early twentieth century, the anti-fascist movement—aka "antifa"—has a long, fascinating history that is surprisingly little known. As it makes a dramatic and widespread reappearance in Trump's America, this book, by historian Mark Bray, is both a riveting history, and an accessible guide to methods used over the years to fight repressive demagogism.

"[Bray's] analysis is methodical, and clearly informed by both his historical training and 15 years of organizing, which included Occupy Wall Street. . . . Antifa: The Anti-Fascist Handbook couldn't have emerged at a more opportune time. Bray's arguments are incisive and cohesive, and his consistent refusal to back down from principle makes the book a crucial intervention in our political moment."

NIXON'S WHITE HOUSE WARS

The Battles That Made and Broke a President and Divided America Forever

by PATRICK J. BUCHANAN

Patrick Buchanan—speechwriter and senior adviser to President Nixon—tells the untold story of Nixon's embattled White House, from its historic wins to its devastating defeats. In this riveting memoir from behind the scenes of the most controversial presidency of the last century, Nixon's White House Wars reveals both the failings and achievements of the thirty-seventh President, recorded by one of those closest to Nixon from before his political comeback to his final days in office.

WE WERE EIGHT YEARS IN POWER

An American Tragedy

by TA-NEHISI COATES

We Were Eight Years in Power is a vital account of modern America from one of the definitive voices of this historic moment. The book features Ta-Nehisi Coates's iconic essays first published in The Atlantic, including "Fear of a Black President," "The Case for Reparations," and "The Black Family in the Age of Mass Incarceration," along with eight fresh essays that revisit each year of the Obama administration through Coates's own experiences, observations, and intellectual development, capped by a bracingly original assessment of the election that fully illuminated the tragedy of the Obama era.

EVICTED

Poverty and Profit in the American City

by MATTHEW DESMOND

Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for General Nonfiction; Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award for Nonfiction; PEN/John Kenneth Galbraith Award for Nonfiction; Andrew Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Nonfiction; Hillman Prize for Book Journalism; Chicago Tribune Heartland Prize. Finalist for the Los Angeles Times Book Prize.

Based on years of embedded fieldwork in the poorest neighborhoods of Milwaukee, where families spend most of their income on housing and where eviction has become routine, Evicted transforms our understanding of extreme poverty and economic exploitation while providing fresh ideas for solving a devastating, uniquely American problem.

"Desmond is an academic who teaches at Harvard—a sociologist or, you could say, an ethnographer. But I would like to claim him as a journalist too, and one who . . . has set a new standard for reporting on poverty."

ROGUE JUSTICE

The Making of the Security State

by KAREN J. GREENBERG

A deeply reported look at how the architects of the War on Terror transformed the Department of Justice into an arm of the intelligence community—hijacking an institution charged with upholding the Constitution and the rule of law, and using it as legal cover for mass surveillance and torture.

"9/11 changed America. This invaluable book shows how close we came to losing many of the basic principles that underlie our system of justice—and how much we still have to do to protect the basic principles that make our country a beacon for human rights."—Lawrence Wright, author of The Looming Tower and Thirteen Days in September

PARADISE NOW

The Story of American Utopianism

by CHRIS JENNINGS

A thought-provoking intellectual history of the golden age of nineteenth-century American utopianism, which left its mark on the way we view the American character, even today. Jennings's deft narrative illuminates the infectious optimism and lunatic creativity of our utopian predecessors who insisted the world would follow their lead.

"Uncommonly smart and beautifully written . . . [Chris] Jennings's sure grasp never falters. The result is a triumph of scholarship and narration: five stand-alone community studies and a coherent, often spellbinding history of the United States during its tumultuous first half-century."—The New York Times Book Review

FUTURES OF BLACK RADICALISM

Edited by GAYE THERESA JOHNSON and ALEX LUBIN

In Futures of Black Radicalism, key intellectuals—inspired by the new movements and by the seminal work of the scholar Cedric J. Robinson—recall the powerful tradition of Black radicalism while defining new directions for the activists and thinkers it inspires.

"Cedric Robinson was a towering intellectual and courageous activist in the grand tradition of W.E.B Du Bois. In these bleak times, it is imperative to keep his legacy alive and build on his work and witness. This book meets this imperative in a powerful way!"

THE MAKING OF DONALD TRUMP

by DAVID CAY JOHNSTON

Now with a New Introduction and Epilogue

Pulitzer Prize-winning investigative journalist David Cay Johnston, who had spent thirty years chronicling Donald Trump for the New York Times and other leading newspapers, takes readers from the origins of the Trump family fortune—his grandfather’s Yukon bordellos during the Gold Rush—to his tumultuous gambling and real estate dealings in New York and Atlantic City, all the way to his election as president of the United States, giving us a deeply researched and shockingly full picture of one of the most controversial figures of our time.

“Provides useful, vigorously reported overviews of Mr. Trump’s life and career. . . . Mr. Johnston, who has followed the real estate impresario for nearly three decades, offers a searing indictment of his business practices and creative accounting.” —Michiko Kakutani, The New York Times

THE RETURN OF MARCO POLO’S WORLD

War, Strategy, and American Interests in the Twenty-first Century

by ROBERT D. KAPLAN

In the late thirteenth century, Marco Polo began a decades-long trek on the Silk Road from Venice to China. Now, the Chinese regime has proposed a land-and-maritime Silk Road that duplicates exactly the route Marco Polo traveled. In the major lead essay, recently released by the Pentagon’s Office of Net Assessment, Robert D. Kaplan lays out a blueprint of the world’s changing power politics that recalls the late thirteenth century and shows that America’s ability to influence the power balance in Eurasia is declining.

“These essays constitute a truly pathbreaking, brilliant synthesis and analysis of geographic, political, technological, and economic trends with far-reaching consequences. The Return of Marco Polo’s World is another work by Robert D. Kaplan that will be regarded as a classic.”

—General David Petraeus (U.S. Army, Ret.)

DARING DEMOCRACY

Igniting Power, Meaning, and Connection for the America We Want

by FRANCES MOORE LAPPÉ and ADAM EICHEN

Lappé and Eichen demystify how America reached its current political moment, exposing the well-orchestrated effort that has robbed Americans of their rightful power. But at the heart of this unique book are solutions, highlighting how Americans are uniting across causes and ideologies to create a “canopy of hope” the authors call the Democracy Movement.

“With specific plans of action and encouraging words of support, Lappé and Eichen extend concrete hope to those who feel politically helpless.” —Booklist

THE RETURN

Fathers, Sons and the Land in Between

by HISHAM MATAR

Winner of the Pulitzer Prize

Twenty-two years after his father, one of the Qaddafi regime’s most prominent opponents, went missing, Hisham Matar returns to the homeland he never thought he’d go back to again. The Return is the story of what he found there, a brilliant portrait of a nation and a people on the cusp of change, and a disquieting depiction of the brutal legacy of absolute power.

“The Return is . . . a suspenseful detective story about a writer investigating his father’s fate at the hands of a brutal dictatorship, and a son’s efforts to come to terms with his father’s ghost.”

WEAPONS OF MATH DESTRUCTION

How Big Data Increases Inequality and Threatens Democracy

by CATHY O’NEIL

Tracing the arc of a person’s life, data scientist Cathy O’Neil exposes the “weapons of math destruction” that score teachers and students, sort résumés, grant (or deny) loans, evaluate workers, target voters, set parole, and monitor our health. As O’Neil reveals, the models being used today are opaque, unregulated, and uncontested, even when they’re wrong. This urgent and necessary book looks at the dark underbelly of Big Data, and offers solutions for positive change.

“[O’Neil] is one of the strongest voices speaking out for limiting the ways we allow algorithms to influence our lives.” —Scientific American

ON TYRANNY

Twenty Lessons from the Twentieth Century

by TIMOTHY SNYDER

With On Tyranny, Snyder draws from the darkest hours of the twentieth century to provide hope for the twenty-first. As he writes, "Americans today are no wiser than the Europeans who saw democracy yield to fascism, Nazism, or Communism. Our one advantage is that we might learn from their experience." On Tyranny is a call to arms and a guide to resistance, with invaluable ideas for how we can preserve our freedoms in the uncertain years to come.

THE FIX

How Countries Use Crises to Solve the World's Worst Problems

by JONATHAN TEPPERMAN

Longlisted for the 2016 Financial Times Business Book of the Year

Jonathan Tepperman's The Fix identifies ten pervasive and seemingly impossible challenges—including immigration reform, economic stagnation, political gridlock, corruption, and Islamist extremism—and shows that each has a solution, and not merely a hypothetical one. By taking a close look at overlooked success stories—from countries as diverse as Canada, Botswana, and Indonesia, Tepperman discovers practical advice for problem-solvers of all stripes, making a data-driven case for optimism in a time of crushing pessimism.

"An enjoyable and informative book. . . . Tepperman does a wonderful job of illustrating that government leaders can achieve great things if they put their minds to it." —The Washington Monthly

How the White House Chiefs of Staff Define Every Presidency

by CHRIS WHIPPLE

The first in-depth, behind-the-scenes look at how the American presidency has hinged on the effectiveness of the White House chiefs of staff, and how their decisions have dictated the course of our country. Award-winning producer and journalist Chris Whipple demonstrates how those appointed to this lofty position have often served as de facto prime ministers, and the surprising extent to which their tenures have set the tone for our political climate.

THE ORIGIN OF CAPITALISM

by ELLEN MEIKSINS WOOD

In The Origin of Capitalism, a now-classic work of history, Ellen Meiksins Wood offers readers a clear and accessible introduction to the theories and debates concerning the birth of capitalism, imperialism, and the modern nation state. Capitalism is not a natural and inevitable consequence of human nature, nor simply an extension of age-old practices of trade and commerce. Rather, it is a late and localized product of very specific historical conditions, which required great transformations in social relations and in the relationship between humans and nature.

"This extremely valuable book offers an insightful tour of the historical debates surrounding the transition from feudalism to capitalism . . . a must-read for anyone with even the remotest interest in the origins of capitalism, or economic thought in general, from undergraduates through professionals." —Choice

GETTING RELIGION

Faith, Culture, and Politics from the Age of Eisenhower to the Ascent of Trump

by KENNETH L. WOODWARD

Award-winning author Kenneth L. Woodward blends memoir—especially of the postwar era—with copious reporting and shrewd historical analysis to tell the story of how American religion, culture, and politics influenced each other in the second half of the twentieth century. Beginning with a bold reassessment of the Fifties, Woodward's narrative weaves through the Civil Rights era; the anti-Vietnam movement; Liberation theology in Latin America; the rise of Evangelicalism and decline of mainline Protestantism; women's liberation and the Bible; and the embrace of righteous politics by both the Republican and Democratic Parties.

"In this thoughtful book, Ken Woodward offers us a memorable portrait of the past seven decades of American life and culture. From Reinhold Niebuhr to Billy Graham, from Abraham Heschel to the Dali Lama, from George W. Bush to Hillary Clinton, Woodward captures the personalities and charts the philosophical trends that have shaped the way we live now."
